Articles of Association concerning the Shareholders' Meeting and Voting Procedures

1. Convening of Meeting

Chapter III Clause 13

During the period of twenty one (21) days before each shareholder's meeting, the Company shall not accept recording the share transfer by announcing to shareholders in advance at the head office for a period of not less than fourteen (14) days prior to suspension of recording the share transfer.

Chapter VI Clause 30

Shareholders holding shares amounting to not less than one-fifth (1/5) of the total number of shares wholly sold or not less than twenty-five (25) shareholders holding shares amounting to not less than one-tenth (1/10) of the total number of shares wholly sold may submit their names and request the board of directors in writing to call for an extraordinary general meeting of shareholders at any time, provided that, the reasons of request for calling for such meeting shall be clearly stated in the said written request. In such an event, the board of directors shall proceed to call for a shareholder meeting to be held within a period of one (1) month from the date of the receipt of such request from the said shareholders.

Chapter VI Clause 31

In calling a shareholders' meeting, the board of directors shall prepare a written notice specifying the place, date, time, agenda of the meeting and the matters to be proposed to the meeting in appropriate detail by clearly indicating whether it is a matter proposed for acknowledgement or for approval or for consideration, as the case may be, including the opinion of the board of directors on the said matters, and the said notice shall be distributed to the shareholders and the registrar not less than seven (7) days prior to the date of the meeting. The notice shall be published in the newspaper for not less than three (3) consecutive days and not less than three (3) days prior to the date of the meeting.

2. Proxy

Chapter VI Clause 32

Each shareholder has the right to attend the meeting and vote in every shareholders' meeting, but may appoint any person, who becomes sui juris, to be his or her proxy to attend the meeting and vote on behalf of him or her. Proxy must be made in writing in a form specified by the registrar and signed by the grantor and the grantee and submitted to the chairman of the board or any person assigned by the chairman of the board at a place of meeting before the grantee attend the meeting.

3. Quorum

Chapter VI Clause 33

At a shareholders' meeting there shall be not less than twenty five (25) shareholders and proxies (if any) attending the meeting and such shareholders shall hold shares amounting to not less than one-third (1/3) of the total number of shares sold of the Company, whereby a quorum would then be constituted unless otherwise stipulated by laws.

At any shareholders' meeting, if one (1) hour has passed from the time specified for the meeting and the number of shareholders attending the meeting is still inadequate for a quorum as prescribed in the first paragraph, and if such shareholders' meeting was called as a result of a request of the shareholders, such meeting shall be cancelled. If such meeting was not called as a result of a request of the shareholders, a new meeting shall be called for and the notice calling for such meeting shall be dispatched to shareholders not less than seven (7) days prior to the date of the meeting. In the subsequent meeting, a quorum is not required.

4. Voting Procedures

Chapter VI Clause 36

Except otherwise as specified in these Articles of Association or by laws, a final decision or resolution of the shareholders meeting shall require a majority of votes of the shareholders attending the meeting and cast their votes. In case of voting, one share shall equal to one vote. In case of a tie vote, the chairman of the meeting shall have a casting vote.

Any shareholder has special interest in any matter in which the meeting will resolve, such shareholder shall not have the right to vote in such matter, except for the vote in terms of the appointment of directors.
